

Congratulatory Messages

- Dear Janak,

We are all extremely happy and proud to note that you have been awarded Lancaster Award 2012 by ASQ for your outstanding contributions to the development, dissemination and promotion of a holistic approach to Quality Management.

I wish very soon you should get your Deming Award as an individual for propagation of Quality.

I am immensely pleased and happy for your great achievement.

Kind regards to you and also to your wife, who is standing by you in supporting throughout your professional career.

- Dear Mr Mehta ,

How should I congratulate an iconic figure who has now created a legacy as Builder of International Quality Space . It was June last year you thrilled us by being elected as President of International Academy for Quality (IAQ) , reminding me of my Tokyo visit in 2007 to receive Deming Quality Award where Dr Kano and the Japanese Quality Fraternity held you in such high respects .

And the recent feather in your illustrious cap duely acknowledged by ASQ makes India proud again .

Wishing you profound glory towards many more such achievements .

God Bless !!!

- Dear Shri Mehta Sab,

Please accept my heartiest congratulations for this prestigious 'Lancaster Award 2012' from ASQ. We all feel proud when you get such high recognitions which, of course are well deserving and received so humbly by you. Each and every word of the Citation of the award is so true in your case. I wish many more to come in the following days.

Looking forward to work under your guidance and be blessed in future also.

Please convey my regards to Mrs. Mehta.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Anil K. Srivastava, Professor of Statistics, University of Lucknow & Director, IASQM
