About the faculty

Mr. N. Ramanathan (75) is a senior counsellor and advisor of TQM. He established the Quality-in-Planet-Earth-Concerns Think Tank for the International Academy for Quality (IAQ). He has presented and published numerous papers on Sustainability and its connection to Quality. In 2021 he has helped ISQ establish the Quality Earth Forum, which is now a national partner to the Quality Sustainability Award of IAQ. He is Vice Chair of just established IAQ Think Tank on Quality 4.0.

Ram is founding member of ISQ, and past President (2003-2010). He has collaborated in creating the newly announced ISQ Vision and Mission, which embrace the ideas of a healthy plant and thriving humanity.

As a counsellor, Ram has been associated with twelve successful Deming Prize challenges in India, and has taught and advised Ashok Leyland, CEAT, SRF, Indus Towers, JSW Steels, the Mahindra group, Tata Quality Management Services, Tata Steel and other organisations.

Ram was recently awarded the prestigious Edwards Medal from American Society for Quality (ASQ) for outstanding leadership. Besides other international awards for his work, Ram has received the Dronacharya Award from ISQ in 2018 for his contributions to teaching and counselling on quality.

Ram is a Mechanical Engineer with Masters from IIM, Ahmedabad(1969) with 52 years of experience in industry, and in teaching and counselling.
