ESG as a DIMENSION of Quality

Indian Society for Quality, as part of its objectives of dissemination of knowledge through sharing, brings out its first of best practices sharing seminars on ESG.

ESG, or Environment, Social and Governance or Sustainability as it is commonly known is an emerging area of importance in the corporate community. Its gaining more and more steam as company valuations are beginning to get impacted and customers, partners, employees & society at large is all ears to how companies are faring on this front. This is also gaining more and more importance as technologies globally are improving by leaps and bounds thanks to Industry 4.0 and its therefore important that the world grows responsibly, and our planet remains protected

The half day seminar will start at 4 00 PM and close after dinner.

Date : 16 06 2023

Venue: DoubleTree by Hilton Gurgaon–New Delhi NCR, Sector 56, Golf Course Road, Gurgaon

Industries and businesses are looking at how get the right value addition through doing the right things in environmental, social, and governance (ESG). It is important to understand them in a practical sense to have an effective application of ESG, understand how they are interwoven. Working on ESG proactively is a compelling need now.

ISQ invites registrations from executives from industry and businesses concerned with ESG for the half day seminar where some of the best practices are shared by renowned organisations.

ESG as a DIMENSION of Quality

Environmental, social, and corporate governance (ESG), is a framework designed to be embedded into an organization's strategy that considers the needs and ways in which to generate value for all organizational stakeholders.

Environmental : Aspect related to climate change, greenhouse gas emissions, biodiversity loss, deforestation/reforestation, pollution mitigation, energy efficiency and water management etc.

Social : Aspect related to employee safety and health, working conditions, diversity, equity, and inclusion, and conflicts and humanitarian crises and is relevant in risk and return assessments directly through results in enhancing (or destroying) customer satisfaction and employee engagement.

Governance: Aspect related to corporate governance such as preventing bribery, corruption, Diversity of Board of Directors, executive compensation, cybersecurity and privacy practices, and management structure.

About ISQ

Indian Society for Quality (ISQ) is a not-for-profit society established in 1996 to fill the need for a national forum for interaction among quality professionals, leaders, practitioners and academics. ISQ is a non-partisan, independent body that attracts and invites individual members from business organizations, health care and educational institutions, government agencies and NGOs. Members share their knowledge and learn from each other. ISQ is thus engaged in both creating and disseminating knowledge.

Its mission is to contribute to the thriving of humanity in a healthy planet.

ISQ is well linked to similar national quality bodies in other countries. It is a board member from its very inception and has represented India in the Asian Network for Quality (ANQ). ISQ is a national partner to International Quality Innovation Award initiated by Laatukskus Excellence, Finland and Quality Sustainability Award promoted by International Academy for Quality. ISQ is the face of India in the world of quality.
